

"TWELFTH NIGHT".

An old English custom introduced for the first time.

AT ST. MATTHEW'S P. E. RECTORY, THE EPIPHANY FESTIVAL, AS A TIME FOR REJOICING, OBSERVED BY A MOCK ASSEMBLY OF YE OLDE LORDS AND DAMES—IN OTHER WORDS THE CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN, WITH THEIR WIVES—CORONATION OF KING AND QUEEN—INTRODUCED BY REV. N. S. THOMAS.

The epiphany festival or "Twelfth Night" festival, was celebrated in Wheeling last night for the first time. It was celebrated in the form of a reception tendered by Rev. N. S. Thomas to the wardens and vestry board of St. Matthew's P. E. church and their wives, at the rectory, and was a beautiful and unique affair. Its introduction in this city by Rev. Mr. Thomas marks the initial celebration of what is to be an annual affair.

The epiphany is associated with the manifestation of Jesus Christ to the world as the Son of God, and prevails to the fourth century was commemorated as the Saviour's birthday. Afterward it became associated, more particularly in commemoration of the visit of the Magi, of Wise Men of the East, and to this day the custom holds in England, of the sovereign making an oblation, every epiphany, of gold, frankincense and myrrh at the altar of the Chapel Royal. The queen doesn't make this offering now, it being done by deputy, but till comparatively recent times the offering was made in person. In England the epiphany festival receives great observance and aside from being an event in the Church of England, it is customary for the people to observe it in revelry; for like other church days, holy days have become holidays as well. Even by the early church there were many customs of observing the festival, and there were curious and picturesque costumes worn by the people celebrating it as a season of mirth and revelry.

In America members of the Episcopal church to a much less degree have observed the festival, in what might be called a social sense, not excepting, of course, the regulation church services. But it is England where the custom, typical of the ancient celebration prevails, and Rev. Mr. Thomas' programme emulated of "Ye olden days." The invitations sent out by him and Mrs. Thomas were Chaucerian in "lingo," and that the recipients can dabble with ease in the obsolete was evident from a glance at the notes they sent. And within the rectory parlors from 8 to 10 o'clock, it would have taken but a slight transit of the imagination to carry the beholder back to England's earlier days, and the revels on the village green.

It was a mock assemblage of privy councillors and ladies of the household. Here they departed until twelve months hence, a king and queen were crowned—yet they say this country is without a monarchy! But to the point. The idea was new to the guests, but they soon were initiated. Rev. Mr. Thomas read the "minutes" of their last meeting, after which they adjourned to the dining room. Here refreshments were partaken of from dainty and antique china. Many pieces of the service, by the way, belonged to Mr. Thomas' grandfather, who was 100 years ago. The only light shed on the tables was from candles, which were nicely relieved by the green of mistletoe. Then came the cutting of a large cake. Each piece was cut to fit a handsome paper box, presented with the cake. One piece of cake contained the epiphany ring. This was secured by Mrs. J. D. Culbertson, who accordingly won the honor of being crowned queen. The "noble lords" were not least of sight. Like their dames they engaged in a harmless tussle for honors. Twelve beans, eleven white and one black, afforded weapons, the knight drawing the black bean inheriting the crown. Fortune smiled on Robert M. Browne.

Then came wassail, that ancient concoction upon which the lusty Saxons waxed merry. The "Twelfth Night" Saxons tasted it, and inwardly thanked the stars that the world had progressed since the days of the thanes. But the menu. Here it is:

Peppermint Cocktail.
Muscle on the Half Shell.
Third's Next Soup, a Mellon's Man.
Crabapple Croquette, a la Aschmann.
Turtle Cutlet, a la Culbertson.
Baked Flamingo, a la Brock.
Fillet of Zebra, a la Peterson.
Coronet of Frozen Peppers, a la Spindel.
Nightingale Livers on Toast, a la Flick.
Pheasant of Monkey, a la Hearne.
Breast of Swan, a la Dubois.
Luttrell's Funtler, a la Brown.
Washington Cream, Revenue Sauce, a la Scott.
Rectory Cheese and Holloway Crackers.
Cordons, a la Matthews.
Coffee and Cigars, a la Brown.

Following the feast in the banquet hall, adjournment was made to the parlor, where the coronation occurred. There was the throne and dais, embroidered in palms, while rugs and other furnishings were appropriately arranged. Mrs. Culbertson, as the queen of the epiphany was crowned with a wreath of flowers. King Browne received a gold crown. After the ceremony due homage was paid to royalty. Music on the piano accompanied the ceremony. There was nothing of the staid about the performers, as may be judged from the following jaw-dropping names. They are as follows:

Peppery Pickle, H. R. H. the Prince of Mango.
Hot Tomale, H. R. H. Duke of Tabasco.
Col. F. J. Hearne.
Most Humble Lord, Earl of Archibishop.
Earl Prattle, N. G. Lord High Chancellor.
Earl Hildens, Lord High Keeper of the Privy Seal.
Earl Sweetheart, P. P. C. Lord Steward of the Household.
Earl Saddle, Master of the Horse.
Earl Czar Feed, H. S. V. P. Lord President of the Privy Council.
Earl Lazy Bookworm, N. G. Master of the Rolls.
Earl Cincuent Cheatham, Lord Advocate.
Lord Frolic, O. K. Master of the Revels.
The better halves of the household were the following dames:

Her Grace, Duchess of Tabasco.
Mrs. Hearne.
Her Excellency Lady Prattle, Mrs. Brown.
Lady Thine, Mrs. Scott.
Lady Sweetheart, Mistress of the Games.
Lady Saddle, Mistress of the Household.
Lady Hildens, Mrs. Aschmann.
Lady Feed, Mistress of the Poodle.
Lady Bookworm, Mrs. Quaker.
The Hon. Lady Cheatham, Mistress of the Dice.
Lady Frolic, Mistress of the Revels.

It was an amusing affair throughout, yet was educational and interesting as well. A feature was the "minutes," containing many local "bits" on those present. Next Epiphany, one year from last night, this phase of the festival will be held at the home of Mrs. Culbertson, she being queen until then. The guests last night were unanimous in their delight at their entertainment by Rev. Mr. Thomas and wife, who were assisted in receiving by the mother of the rector.

FOR CUBA LIBRE.

Interesting Lecture last Night by Dr. C. N. Thomas—Cubans will Eventually Win. They may Purchase their Independence.

Dr. C. N. Thomas, of Illinois, delivered a highly interesting lecture in the Martin's Ferry German Lutheran church on Cuba last night to a good-sized and appreciative audience. He was introduced by Superintendent Stewart, of the Martin's Ferry schools. He began by describing Moro castle and Havana and said the present financial standing of Cuba is very alarming. He told of the ten years' war and explained that what few promises Spain made to the Cubans when that struggle ended were not fulfilled. He said the Cubans are justified in carrying on the present war, and gave six reasons; first, overtaxation; second, nearly all the opportunities are offered to the Spanish; third, during peace 25,000 soldiers are kept on the island at the expense of Cuba; fourth, the lack of educational facilities; fifth, there is no fair trial by jury, and sixth, the people have as much right to fight for freedom as our forefathers had.

Dr. Thomas said if ever a people were justified in fighting for freedom it is the Cubans. He said the Cubans could govern the island successfully by being divided into three classes, colored, Cubans and Spaniards. The Cubans are not Spaniards, though of Spanish descent. Their tastes are different, the Spaniards enjoying bull fighting, while the Cubans prefer base ball. Among the best looking women in the world are the Cuban women in Havana, who are seldom seen on the streets without an escort. The place to see Cuban women is at the churches on Sunday morning.

The Cubans say that if they do not win in two years they will in five and if not in five they will in ten and that there will never be peace in Cuba until the flag of freedom waves over the island. The Spanish are a wonderfully industrious people, small, but strong, physically and Spain always grants the Spanish privileges on the island that no other people enjoy. If Cuba is free, thousands of Americans will go there. There is no place in the world that would be better for the workingman if it should become free and there is no better place for the capitalist.

If the island ever becomes free we will see wonderful development. If you wish to know the real condition of Cuba you must go into the interior. If Spain had treated the English or Germans like she has the Americans have been treated Havana would have been blown up long ago.

The suffering of the Spanish soldiers as seen by Dr. Thomas was awful. The Cuban soldiers, who practically control the interior, have plenty of fruit and meat, and little clothing and could hold out for years. Cuban women who frequently slept on the sidewalks and in the streets told Dr. Thomas they considered the great American government cowardly to permit such treatment so close to its doors. Historians will call the American government cowardly for not interfering in behalf of the Cubans and not wiping out this terrible war. If Cuba is free, the Spanish queen will lose her crown. The policy of the Cubans is to wear out Spain.

As soon as belligerent rights are granted the Cubans by the United States, Mexico and the South American republics will follow suit. The Cubans are making a wonderful fight considering their disadvantages. No people ever fought so nobly and they should win. The best plan is for the Cubans to buy the island from Spain.

ONLY those who get ready for it coming can look approaching old age in the face without fear. The systematic saver, who begins early and continues saving while earning lasts greets old age as cheerfully as the tired laborer greets the rest of evening after a day of healthy, well paid toil—a happiness looked forward to, a well earned rest to be enjoyed. A snap and growing account in the Mutual Savings Bank, No. 1521 Market street, drawing four per cent. compound interest, lightens the toils and cares of to-day, and like the sunset glow gives sure promise of a bright to-morrow.

THE ELECTIONS.

In the Small Communities in the Vicinity of Wheeling

PASSED OFF WITHOUT TROUBLE

YESTERDAY—THE DISAGREEMENT WEATHER CUT DOWN THE USUAL VOTE IN SOME OF THE TOWNS, BUT IN OTHERS THE ISSUES INVOLVED WERE OF SUCH MOMENT THAT RAIN, SLEET AND SNOW WOULD NOT HAVE KEPT THE VOTERS AT HOME—THE RESULT IN DETAIL.

Yesterday, the annual municipal elections of a number of the smaller communities in the vicinity of Wheeling were held, among these being Fulton, McMechen, Cameron, Pleasant Valley, Elm Grove and Triadelphia. Nowhere was the issue one of politics, liquor generally being an issue more or less prominent. The results in detail are given below.

McMECHEN.

In McMechen a fair vote was out and the contest between the Citizens' and Citizens' Improvement tickets was close and exciting. The Citizens' Improvement candidates for mayor and recorder won, also two of their candidates for council. The successful candidates: Mayor—Joseph O. Rhodes (C. I.); Recorder—W. F. Reece (C. I.); Councilmen—Jesse Clayton (C. I.); A. H. Carroll (C. I.); John Ruckman (C. I.). The vote was as follows, 173 votes being cast:

Mayor—J. A. Chambers (C. I.), 83; Joseph O. Rhodes (C. I.), 57.
Recorder—John Roy (C. I.), 56; W. F. Reece (C. I.), 115.
Councilmen—Jesse Clayton (C. I.), 91; William Bookman (C. I.), 78; William Campbell (C. I.), 88; Charles Kaufman (C. I.), 81; T. C. McMechen (C. I.), 97; H. F. Parks (C. I.), 84; Isaiah Stephens (C. I.), 78; A. H. Carroll (C. I.), 87; John Ruckman (C. I.), 85; Samuel Villers (C. I.), 84.

ELM GROVE.

The contest at Elm Grove was full of surprises, yet voter scratching his ballot right and left. The result was that the Independents almost fought the Citizens to a standstill, and succeeded in electing their nominee as the chief magistrate of the town. The interest manifested yesterday was a surprise to many, it having been thought that the Citizens, who got in the field like the early bird, would sweep the platter, but the Independents were imitating the possum rather than the feathered creature. Their majority candidate, Michael A. Madden, is very popular with the boys, and his popularity was attested yesterday in his victory.

Though the Citizens lost the mayor, in Wilbur Duncan they elected the town recorder. They also got two councilmen, Wilson Smith and John C. McCurdy, and might possibly claim I. F. Jones and J. S. Beddell, who were on their ticket. The Independents put their names on their ticket, too, hence Messrs. Jones and Beddell had no opposition. The big vote polled by Conductor Wils Smith was a feature of the election.

Politics cut no figure. The new council will stand four Democrats and three Republicans, and for twelve months more the act of rushing the growler will not be played before Elm Grove footlights, the "Growlers" failing to land a majority. The vote was as follows:

Mayor—Michael A. Madden, Independent, 53; Louis Wharton, Citizens, 26.
Recorder—Wilbur Duncan, Citizens, 44; John E. Gable, Independent, 41.
Council—J. F. Jones and J. S. Beddell (on both tickets); Wilson Smith, Citizens, 72; John C. McCurdy, Citizens, 65; John Wetzel, Independent, 41. The "also rans" were—J. M. Butler, Citizens, 23; J. G. Raab, Independent, 22; J. L. Kimmins, Independent, 15; William Webster, 15.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

Pleasant Valley was as peaceful and serene as its name yesterday. There wasn't a breath of excitement, the citizens quietly depositing their ballots and then vouching their way to their firesides. The result:

Mayor—A. R. Acker, 21. No opposition.
Recorder—William Giehrst, 21. No opposition.
Council—S. S. Bloch, 16; B. Horkheimer, 17; Charles Selbert, 18; W. D. Johnson, 18; George Adams, 15.

FULTON.

Out at Fulton the high license people won out by a handsome majority. Roth beating Hamm for mayor, and the high license candidates for recorder and councilmen were all elected. The saloon men made a desperate fight against the Roth ticket, the present council having raised the retail liquor license from $25 to $75. Street lighting was also vindicated. The successful candidates are:

Mayor—Henry Roth.
Recorder—A. C. Wagner.
Councilmen—George Zeigler, Joseph Yoeke, George Bush, Peter Felsheim, Otto Schenk.

The vote was as follows:

Mayor—Henry Roth, 66; Edward Hamm, 44.
Recorder—M. Stein, 41; A. C. Wagner, 65.
Councilmen—Simon Gerringer, 27; George Bush, 64; Christian Hoffman, 21; Joseph Yoeke, 70; George Zeigler, 72; Peter Felsheim, 66; Otto Schenk, 38; August Schuepfer, 22; Michael Friesmuth, 25; John Stehm, 15; William Bayles, 16.

It was impossible to secure the returns last night from Cameron and Triadelphia.

SOCIETY.

The home of Mrs. Adelaide Egert, North Main street, last night was the scene of a very pretty wedding. Mrs. Egert's daughter, Miss Nellie, being united in marriage to Mr. Fred F. Faris. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Schwarm, of the English Lutheran church, and it was witnessed by a number of intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The parlors were tastefully embellished for the event by palms and other plants, and following the ceremony refreshments were served by Caterer George Durst.

The nuptials were solemnized shortly after 8 o'clock. The maid of honor was Miss Eva Egert, sister of the bride, and Mr. Roy B. Naylor, was best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of blue material, trimmed with fur and lace, and her attendant was becomingly attired in a costume of striped silk. During the entrance of the bridal party into the parlors, Miss Flora Stifel played Mendelssohn's wedding march, and during the ceremony, Mascagni's Intermezzo.

Mr. and Mrs. Faris left at 11:10 o'clock over the Baltimore & Ohio for Cincinnati, whence they depart for Florida and other southern points of interest. They will take with them the best wishes and esteem of a large circle of acquaintances. The groom is a son of Captain J. A. Faris, a member of the firm of Franzheim, Glesley & Faris, and an energetic young business man. His bride is a charming young lady, possessing many accomplishments, and favorably known in both social and musical circles.

The annual New Year's ball given by the Mercantile Club, occurred last night at the club rooms and was the usual success. There was a large attendance, a number of visitors being present. The club rooms were handsomely decorated for the occasion. Meister's orchestra furnished the music and dancing continued until two o'clock this morning. Supper was served at midnight. The affair was in charge of the amusement committee, composed of Maurice Steinfeld, chairman; Leon Sonnenborn, Joseph H. Baer, Charles Wolf and David Kraus.

MOTHERS, DON'T SCOLD

Your Children—They are not to Blame—Try to Help Them.

Many a Wheeling mother on reading this will appreciate the boon the information will bring. Thousands of children have been scolded time and again for a so-called habit, when they are not to blame. Wet beds have been the resting place of the little ones night after night and no amount of scolding or chiding could prevent a repetition. If mothers only knew their little boys and girls were not to blame; they cannot help it. It is not a habit, it is simply weak kidneys. At last a preparation that the doctor found so gentle in its action that the mother could take it. We refer to Doan's Kidney Pills, and when the public know it there need be nothing but sweet, dry beds for the children and no more need for scolding. Read what an Ashtabula mother has to say about it:

Mrs. E. B. Crues, No. 239 Prospect street, Ashtabula, says: "I got Doan's Kidney Pills for my little boy 13 years old, who has been since he was 9 years old, troubled with a weakness of the renal organs. At that time he was taken with spasms that physicians attributed to worms. These were checked in time but his kidneys did not regain their strength and non-retention of urine while sleeping has embarrassed the little fellow very much and caused much annoyance to me. We have had him treated by physicians without success, but after using Doan's Kidney Pills, immediately we began his kidneys grew stronger. I know that there are many children that way, and that mothers would be only too glad to learn of a cure. I can without any hesitancy recommend those pills for that and you may refer to me in that respect."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
